

JURY'S DECISION ON III REGIONAL BEST PRACTICES AWARD

On the 23rd October 2018 in Rabat, ORU Fogar's Secretariat-General, taking into account the jury's appraisal of the III Regional Best Practices Award, composed of:

- Anna Fernandez, general coordinator of ORU Fogar and president of the Jury.
- Mireia Canals, professor and researcher of Vic University.
- Rodrigo Mesias, policy officer de nrg4SD.
- Lurdes Gomez, chief technical adviser of UNDP Jordania.
- Xavier Longan, Officer in Charge Bonn Global Campaign Center, Programme Specialist and Europe Focal Point, UN SDG Action Campaign.
- Johannes Krassnitzer, coordinator of UNDP-ART.
- Mario Biggeri, professor of Florence University, director of ARCO Lab and specialist in Human Development.
- Francisca Inês dos Santos, director of Local Development Unit of Prime Minister Cabinet in Cape Verde.
- Rosa Suriñach, Partnerships & Communications, Urban Resilience Programme, UN-Habitat.

HAS DECIDED:

The ex aequo winning practices of the third edition are the following:

"Public Policy on Food and Nutrition Security Mana", submitted by the Antioquia Government (Colombia) on the 31st May 2018, with registry number 11 and a total score of 652 points.

"Plan to tackle poverty", submitted by the Diputació of Barcelona (Spain) on the 31st May 2018, with registry number 24 and a total score of 647 points.

"A transition towards a clean, participatory and decentralized energy model that puts the citizen at its center", submitted by the Catalan Government (Spain) on the 28th May 2018, with registry number 5 and a total score of 635 points.

"GANA government of Nariño", submitted by the Nariño Government (Colombia) on the 31st May 2018, with registry number 29 and a total score of 619 points.

"Io, Trentino", submitted by the Trentino Government (Italy) on the 31st May 2018, with registry number 22 and a total score of 616 points.